Bishop Harvey Bible Study St. John to the Churches: The Three Epistles of St. John

This seven week Bible Study will meet Wednesday evenings from 7:30-9:00PM beginning April 26th, at a place to be determined. Weeks 1 - 4 will consider 1 John

Week 5 will consider 2 John

Week 6 will consider 3 John

Week 7 will be a video presentation of St. John in Exile. Because this is meant to be conversational in approach the maximum number of people will be 20. Please sign up at the Welcome Table.

Sabbatical

With the permission of Bishop Masters, Father Darrell will take a two month sabbatical from Easter Day until the Feast of Pentecost. Though he will be remaining at home, the single purpose of this time away from the parish is to allow him to focus on writing the D. Min. Project. This project is the last requirement of the doctor of ministry program he has been working on. Depending on how much he accomplishes in these two months will determine if more time away may be required, so please pray that this time will be very fruitful for him.

His project is entitled "Raising Up, Equipping, and Sustaining Christian Foster Parents."

First Holy Communion Classes

First Holy Communion will take place Pentecost Sunday (June 4). Classes for children and parents will begin April 30th and will meet each Sunday until June 4th at 9:30am. For more information contact +Harvey.
